SALMAGUNDI (FESTUS)

I care not where the sunshine falls,
Nor where the rivers run,
So long as somewhere there's a stream,
And somewhere there's a sun.

The inexorable voice of Destiny seems to say to me: "With the same measure that ye mete, it shall be measured to you again." And I try to live my life with that thought.

And then in life's autumn, the season of rest,
When struggle was over, I paused in my quest
To cast my eyes backward—and, lo, all the way
With flowers was strewn that had brightened each day;
And I saw then that happiness only is known
In retrospect, after life's troubles have flown!

—William Wallace Whitlock.

Some men play politics; others work at it and play the devil.

Did you ever notice that the mocking bird is an extremely sensible bird? While the spring poets are dedicating verses to him he is filling up on fishing worms.

Won't it be fine when we get that rubber road from Hartsville to Carthage? Gee! Won't that be fine? And with silent motor-engines, the only traffic noises will be the shrieks of the crippled pedestrians. Fine!

I heard a pompous fellow say the other day, "I always think before I speak." A few minutes later I concluded that was a misstatement, or that he had a blame poor thinker. The more difficult thing is to keep the audience thinking, son, after you get through speaking.

Not everybody can simultaneously do the three things—stand, think and speak, successfully; some of us can do none of them.

Spaghetti should not be cooked too long. Six or eight inches is about right.

"How far that little candle throws its beams!
So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

The tale of a dog— with a moral

THERE'S AN old gag.
THEY USED to pull.
SO OLD that nowadays.
PEOPLE THINK it's new.
ABOUT THE man who had.
TO SHOOT his dog.
AND A friend asks.
"WAS THE dog mad?"
AND THE first guy.
SAYS, "WELL, he wasn't.
SO DANG well pleased."
AND A chap told me.
THAT THIS described.
SOME SMOKES he'd tried.
THEY DIDN'T exactly.
MAKE HIM mad.
BUT HE wasn't.
SO VERY well pleased.
OF COURSE that was.

MY CUE to slip him.
A REAL cigarette.
AND AFTER he'd taken.
A GOOD pull or two.
INTO HIS constitution.
HE GRINNED and said.
"THE ONLY way these.
WILL EVER make you mad.
IS THE way.
YOUR FRIENDS eat 'em up.
I ONLY hope you've got.
A COUPLE of packs.
FOR THEY sure.
DO SATISFY."

YOU'LL enjoy Chesterfields.
There's something in their mild smoothness that goes right to the spot. Choice tobaccos, Turkish and Domestic—a blend that literally can't be copied—a special moisture-proof wrapper for their extra protection—on every count, Chesterfields "satisfy."

Air-Tight Tins of 50
Ask your dealer to show you the new vacuum-sealed tins of 50 Chesterfields. A compact, convenient and absolutely AIR-TIGHT packing—the cigarettes keep fresh indefinitely.
